Washington, D. C., March 15.—Just what form the soldiers bonus bill will take is still an open question, but not withstanding its determination for strict economy in all other things, the majority in congress are pretty well in accord to give the bonus bill the right of way.

The outlook at this moment is for a bonus that will run up into the billions. One of the latest plans suggested comes from the ways and means committee to which the task of formulating a workable bonus plan has been delegated. The committee thas not yet made any official statement but there is good reason to be lieve a special bond issue will be recommended which will give a bonus to every soldier, salior and marine who took part in the world war. An Answer From the Silk Dress Goods Section

Every day sees additions to our stock of the season's novelties in Silks and Dress Goods. Each year, of course, it seems as if the designs and the colorings, and the textures, were more beautiful than before. This year is no exception. When you view these beautiful weaves you will have to admit that 1920 can hold its own with any year, and that the after-war period has produced some of the most charming and artistic weaves that you have ever

AMONG THE LATEST ARE:

Radium Prints are among the most charming of the newer silks. They are a Taffeta weave, soft in finish and as lustrous as a satin, and the designs and colorings are exquisite. The width, 40 inches, is the best for general use, and the price is low as prices go this year-$6.00 a yard. Printed Georgette Crepe is another very new novelty-a veritable textile confection. The silk itself is of very good quality, and the patterns and colorings are as dainty as can be. One of the designs, the American Beauty Rose is stunning. Width 4 inchesprices $4.00 to $5.00 a yard.

Plain Georgettes we can new show in forty different shades, a most wonderful assortment, all of them in the 40-inch width. One of the newer and mest attractive colorings is "Jade," a clear translucent green which has become immediately popular. The price is $3.00 a yard.

clay as most Americans who have won aign leadership and like them, he cut his teeth on the crust of poverty. Only four or five of our presidents came from poorer homes than our first president and he had less schooling than four-fifths of his successors. He was, in fact, the only president in the first forty years who was without a college education.

president in the first forty years who was without a college education.

Not starting to school until eight, he had to leave at fourteen to go to work. Thenceforth until the Revolution the woods and fields were his only schoolroom and life his only schoolroom and life his only schoolmaster. A had speller and a worse grammarian his English rapidly improved in contact with the educated men whom he commanded by the superiority of his character. His generals all his character. His generals all his statesmen became his teachers.

We the can truly understand this man if we start with the mistaken idea that he was the product of
